

Greetings in the name of His Imperial Majesty, Zere Yacobe Asfa Wossen, Haile Selassie I, the first!

The Story: In late 1996, I had a dream. I was sitting on a hill with a guitar, my mother by my side. I told her I was going to play some music. She laughed and asked if I could play. The sun was shining nice. Not too hot, just nice. Then I started to play music, with many people down to the bottom of the hill. They were laughing and feeling nice. After the music, my mother laughed again. She said, "Casper, I didn't know you could play music." I answered, "Yes, Mommy, didn't I tell you I could play."

I knew the dream was a prophecy. His Imperial Majesty Emperor Haile Selassie I was calling me to be his servant, to do His works. The inspiration of H.I.M. came to me through a series of dreams which resulted in the recording of The Question of Peace album in 1998. Since then Jah has continued to fill me with song, so I will stay in the House of David and I will play His guitar.
